Ebony Diamond – Visual Record

Photograph Details
Date: May 23, 1986
Location: Woodfield Avenue, Streatham SW16 (nighttime, light rain)
Description: Black-and-white image showing a Black woman in a leather jacket and striped mini skirt standing in a provocative pose facing a man in a suit in a rain slicked alleyway The only known surviving photograph of Ebony Diamond.

Victim Context

- Known on the streets as Ebony Diamond
- Prostitute whose tart cards appeared in Streatham High Road phone boxes throughout the 1980s
- Resident of a destitute top-floor flat in Dunton House, Sackville Council Estate (bare floorboards, no furniture)
- Mother of two young boys, Erik and Derik, who were left alone for days before being taken into care
- Repeatedly targeted by Stuart Collier for sadistic sexual sessions involving throttling, physical degradation, object insertion, racial and verbal abuse, and forced acts in view of her sons' care home windows on Garrard's Road

Significance
This rare image is the only known surviving photograph of Ebony Diamond, one of Stuart Collier's documented victims during the peak of her exploitation in the 1980s Streatham vice scene.

Full Journal Entry
Read the complete investigative account:
Stuart Collier and the Ordeal of Ebony Diamond: Sadism, Psychological Torture, Child Proximity Abuse and Maternal Degradation in 1980s Streatham – Featuring the Only Surviving Photograph of This Victim From May 1986

#COLLIEREXPOSED

Image

Ebony Diamond, Woodfield Avenue, Streatham SW16, May 23, 1986

Source: Archival stock photograph, recontextualised through multiple witness testimonies from the Streatham/Tooting vice scene and Sackville Estate residents.

#COLLIEREXPOSED